

DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS

EMDEP CAREER WEBSITE

By choosing to “Submit” your personal information and attachments, you confirm and agree to the following data protection regulations:

Your application documents will be processed solely for EMDEP’s recruitment purposes. This is done in compliance with Art. 6 (1)(b) of the GDPR. EMDEP collects information from job applicants who apply via our website directly. The personal information and application documents may be distributed to all international locations within EMDEP Group. Your personal data will not be forwarded to any third parties outside EMDEP Group.

If your application is successful, your data from the candidate profile will form part of your personnel record. If the application is unsuccessful, your data will still be kept for one year, after which your data will be deleted. The same applies if you withdraw your application or have your application profile deleted.

According to Art. 15 (1) of the GDPR, you have the right, upon request, to obtain information about the personal data stored about you free of charge. In addition, you have a right of deletion under Art. 17 GDPR, the right to restrict processing under Art. 17 GDPR, and a right to rectify your personal data under Art. 16 GDPR. You may contact at any time with us by sending your request to dataprotectionhr@emdep.com.
